North Victnamese hammered at a U.S. Marine camp for three hours today before pulling back and leaving 179 Communist dead strewn over a battlescarred hillside.

The attack on the new camp near Con Thien, two miles below the demilitarized zone, began with a 200-round mortar barrage at 3 a.m. Coordinated with it were mortar attacks on three other Marine positions below the border zone which wounded at least eight marines.

Lt. Gen. Lewis W. Walt, commander of the 75,000 Marines in Vietnam, had a narrow escape at Con Thien. An enemy 60mm mortar round exploded 15 feet from him as he was inspecting the field after the battle. Walt was not hurt, but his operations

Big '67 Fish News Is Coho Success

Story and Photos

By KENNETH S. LOWE Upper Peninsula fishermen will remember 1967 as the year of the great salmon success

Scores of anglers who had never heard of coho salmon before are catching them this spring — by the score.

All along the south shore of Lake Superior fishermen are telling tales of this new sport fish, introduced in this state only a year ago and already established as a fine game

Cohos have been taken by sport fishermen as far west as the Wisconsin waters of Lake Superior and as far east as Whitefish Bay in the far eastern Upper Peninsula.

Particularly good coho fishing has been reported at the mouths of the Dead and Carp rivers in Marquette, off the Laughing Whitefish and Anna Rivers, both in Alger County. Hundreds Caught

Literally hundreds of cohos, most of them 16 to 18 inches long, have been caught by sport fishermen in Marquette's harbors. Just this week two fishermen took nine cohos in an afternoon of trolling there

And off the mouth of the Laughing Whitefish on opening day of the regular fishing season everyone of the two dozen or so boats that returned to shore after a morning of fishing carried one or more cohos.

The first time I fished for cohos, my 11-year-old son and I each had a coho on our lines simultaneously — and within 15 minutes after we had begun fishing.

With results like this, it's no wonder that fishermen along over this silvery newcomer.

Whose Freedom?

In a report to the American Society of Newspaper Editors annual meeting in Washington, D. C., the society's Freedom of Information Committee said the cause of freedom of information was set back during the past year. Although progress was recorded on "the traditional battlefront against bureaucrats," these gains were more than offset by losses in the controversy over a free press vs. a fair trial, the committee reported.

"These losses resulted from actions by the Supreme Court and the American Bar Association which, intentionally or not, scared a lot of policemen, prosecutors, defense counsel and especially judges into suppressing legitimate news of the criminal process," said J. Edward Murray, managing editor of the Arizona Republic of Phoenix and chairman of the ASNE committee.

In Michigan, State Police Director Col. Fredrick Davids earlier this year drew up a set of rules governing his department in releasing information in criminal cases. The rules reportedly were patterned after those in effect in some other states.

Representatives of news media in Michigan found Col. Davids' regulations highly restrictive and considered them damaging to freedom of the press. The newspapers drew support from two persons who frequently are on opposite sides of controversial issues — Republican Gov. George Romney and Democratic Attorney General Frank Kelley. In this instance, however, they worked in concert against Col. Davids' directive, and after a conference between the three, the State Police regulations were suspended.

But this newest threat to freedom of information in Michigan didn't end there. Last week a committee of the Michigan State Bar recommended that a set of rules similar to those drafted by Col. Davids be used to govern attorneys in releasing information in criminal cases.

The Bar's Press Relations Committee proposed adoption of 10 rules for possible inclusion in the Bar's canon, gan's Gov. George Romney the code of ethics restricting the practices of attorneys. could conceivably win the 1968 the blue on issues, but even

The Pill

The results of the longest-term study of "The Pill" yet conducted is encouraging. Of 1.300 women taking oral contraceptives, some for as long as 11 years, not one developed any serious side effects.

Fluoride Benefits Oldsters

A quiet report by a Harvard University medical research team may do more for the cause of water fluoridation than all the noisy public meetings that have been held in communities around the country.

It suggests that fluoride may be of as much benefit to oldsters, bones and hearts as it is to youngsters' teeth.

Was he tired after a 47.6 quarter-mile anchor on the mile relay team that won the invitational event in 3:14.6 on the Stoppy track?

the paddock, getting him ready as if he were going to race and then letting him listen to the crowd noise before returning him to the stable.

The noise didn't bother Proud Clarion Saturday, and his competition didn't either.

The 30-1 shot stormed over the 11/4 miles in 2:00 3-5, finishing a length in front of Barbs Delight with 8-5 favorite Damascus another 11/4 lengths back.

Only two colts, Northern Dancer in 2 minutes flat in 1964. and Decidedly in 2:00 2-5 in 1962, have run the Derby faster, and only two have rewarded their backers better than Proud Clarion, who brought a mutuel win payoff of $62.20. Donerail won at $184.90 in 1913 and Gallahadion at $72.40 in 1949.

Proud Clarion's victory caused the only commotion of note on a rainy day at the Downs as demonstrations by advocates of an open-housing ordinance failed to materialize.

Some 2,500 National Guardsmen, city, Jefferson County and state police were on hand to insure a smooth running.

And it couldn't have been smoother as far as Proud Clarion's schoolmaster was concerned. "Wednesday and Thursday we

Forest Service Aids Nature On Watersheds

By SHERWOOD TROTTER Hiawatha National Forest The lack of high quality water and the need for reducing the threat of floods are receiving increasing attention.

The multiple use concept. which guides the U.S. Forest Service's resource management, recognizes the importance which land management has on water quality and quan-

"Watershed Management," describes all entervation practices which will meet the requirements of the users of a particular watershed.

The influence of man's petivities on the water's quality and on the timing of flow is not always immediately apporent. Poor practices may result in deterioration slow enough to appear "natural." Although it is generally understood that land utilization practices result in changes of yield, quality, and run-off timing of the wat at firre is a reluctance to accept responsibility for undesirable situations arising from uncontroiled exploitation.

When man fails to give consideration to the long-range offeets of his land uses, this failure will eventually become apparent and often causes severe damage. Watershed managecomes a more tangable science.

Johnson Shuns Public, Works

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) -It was a surprise to some, but President Johnson stayed out of public view all day Sunday as he worked at his Texas ranch.

He is expected to return to Washington today after a long weekend of work and relaxation in sometimes-sunny, sometimescloudy Texas.

Mrs. Johnson, who spent the weekend with her husband, is scheduled to be hostess tonight at a White House reception for antipoverty program workers. It is considered likely the chief executive will return with her for that event.

Mrs. Johnson showed up at a ceremony in Fredericksburg, 17 miles west of the ranch, to help celebrate the restoration of Gillespie County's second courthouse, a limestone structure used from 1882 until 1939.

It was in this building that the President's mother and father were wed Aug. 20, 1907.

Speaking of her husband, Mrs. Johnson told a Fredericksburg clergyman: "I'm sorry he couldn't be here. I left him with a desk piled high with work and him hard at it."

Lax Reservists To Get Duty Call

WASHINGTON Reservists who have been skipting drills or otherwise falling to meet their military obligations can expect to be called to active duty beginning July 1. The Defense Department said that it hasn't changed its plan to call up 31.000 delinquent reservists for up to two years of active duty. The action would affect 15.000 to 25.000 Army, 4.-000 Air Force, 2,000 Marine and 100 Navy Reserve personnel.

The department is giving de-Enquent reservists until May 31 to rejoin units with vacancies.
